ARDILAUN'S JOURNEY

The Ardilaun Hotel, or 'Glenarde House' as it was then known, was built circa 1840 as a townhouse for the Persse Family who had large estates in South Galway. One of the Persse Family became Lady Gregory, Co-Founder of the Abbey Theatre. In 1922 the residence at Glenarde was sold to Mr. Patrick Boland – the Boland biscuit making family. The Bolands lived at Glenarde until 1961 when the property, with five acres, was acquired by Mr. and Mrs. Patrick D. Ryan and its conversion into a hotel commenced.

The Ardilaun Hotel was opened for business on St Patrick's Day in 1962 – it was a small hotel at that time, known then as 'The Ardilaun House Hotel'.

Over the years, major investment has led to the hotel as it currently stands with 123 Bedrooms, Conference and Event Facilities, Bar and Bistro, Camilaun Dining Room, Guest Lounges, Superb Leisure Club, Beauty Salon, Beautifully Landscaped Gardens and Complimentary Convenient Car Parking.

The Ardilaun (as it has been known for decades by locals and regular guests) is set in unique seclusion while, at the same time, is very convenient to Galway city centre.

Since 1962 the hotel has been owned and managed by the Ryan family. John Ryan is the Managing Director of the hotel and, together with the proud Ardilaun team of over 120 staff, provides a very high standard of quality and service in a most friendly and efficient manner to all those who visit this well loved hotel.

WHAT OUR GUESTS SAY

We have very much enjoyed our stay in the Ardilaun hotel. Preparations for the conference as well as the service during the conference were top quality. Every member of staff (managers, reception, restaurant and bar staff) were very friendly. We have organised with our organisation conferences around the world, but the friendliness and helpfulness of the Irish people is unmatched. We really hope to come back to drink a good Guinness (or two).

Thanks again for our pleasant stay in your hotel.

Finally, responding to you all in gratitude for a very enjoyable stay at the Ardilaun Hotel at our NEC Executive Meeting.

Can I express my sincere thanks to all of the staff who made our stay a comfortable and an enjoyable time and that was echoed by all of the NEC IPA Executive.

Gratitude to Mr John Ryan, Manager for making me personally feel so welcome. I appreciate all your kind gestures, not to mention my bedroom which was a real treat. I enjoyed its surrounding very much and admired its simplistic interior design. All of the Executive spoke very highly of the quality of their individual bedrooms.

With very Kind Regards and Best Wishes.

Thanks for all of your help with our event – I have worked with quite a few hotels for various events and it really helps me enormously when dealing with such helpful, professional and lovely people like yourselves.

This is just a little note to say thank you once again for all your hard work and help you have given with all the arrangements for our customer event. It really was a pleasure working with you and all of the staff at the hotel. Everyone had a brilliant time and the event was a total success.

The hotel really stands out in my mind as one of the best I have ever worked with – everyone was so accommodating with all of our requests. It was all the hard work that was put in beforehand that ensured the smooth running of the event, so thanks again!

Just a note to thank you and your team for a fantastic service on Friday night for the retirement function. It was a great night due in no small way to the care and attention given to us by all in The Ardilaun. The food was superb and commented on by numerous people at the function. Your duty manager was really great and so helpful on the night. Please pass on our thanks to all the staff who worked to make it such a great success – thanks for making our job very easy.

On behalf of the members Galway Salthill Rotary Club and the Conference Committee, I wish to express our sincere appreciation for your excellent support in making the conference such a huge success. We have received numerous compliments praising the conference and stating that it was one of the best if not the best they have attended.

The success of the conference was in no small measure due to the support we received from each and every member of The Ardilaun management and staff. Your professionalism and attention to detail combined with the heart felt welcome of the hotel and its history was the perfect setting for this conference.

May I once again express our appreciation and we look forward to many more years of the association between The Ardilaun Hotel and Galway Salthill Rotary.
